Amanda,

If you are available for a call tomorrow or wednesday at all could you just reply and tell me the day and time that works for your schedule and I will make it work with my schedule 100% and be ready to go for the call?

This would help out a lot as far as getting things to move forward or I will never change my focus

I just need something I can set a reminder for and write down on a calendar

Sourcing manufacturers for some of these custom pieces I need for my prototype has become much more difficult and time consuming than I ever imagined.

Thanks,
~Matt
