If you do not have supporting documentation, please explain below how the amount of loss was determined.

If you do not explain or attach supporting documentation, we will be unable to process your request.

Restitution is determined by the Judge based on this claim form and the supporting documents you submit.

Making a claim for restitution does not guarantee that restitution will be ordered. Restitution may be ordered in the amount you claim, a different amount or not at all. This depends on the information provided to the Judge and the presentation to the Court. A restitution order is not a guarantee of payment, but rather the first part of the process.

My Total restitution request

(Loss - Reimbursement):

$587.63

Dear Jeremiah Rivera,

Please accept this letter in response to the claim submitted to us for the peril of Theft.

Enclosed you will find additional claim documents. Any payment addressed in this letter is being sent separately. If our understanding of your loss is incorrect in any way, please let us know as soon as possible.

In response to the reported claim, we completed our investigation and reviewed the policy. Based on our review, we have found theft for your personal property.

A payment in the amount of $1,500.00 is being issued.

Here is a recap of the claim payment:

Replacement Cost Value	$2,087.63
Actual Cash Value	$2,087.63
Less Deductible	0
Less Prior Payments	$0.00
Less Amount Over Limits	587.63
Net Claim	$1,500.00

The limit available under your policy for theft of a bicycle and accessories is $1,500.00. We have offset your All Other Perils Deductible in the amount of $500.00 in the excess amount over the policy limit.

Please refer to your policy form ASI HO MN 04 10 13 Renters Protection Policy, which states, in part:

"INSURANCE AGREEMENT

In reliance on the information you have provided to us, we agree to provide the insurance coverages indicated on the Policy Declarations pursuant to the policy terms and conditions. In return, you must pay the premium when due, comply with the policy terms and conditions, and immediately inform us of any change of use or occupancy of the residence premises.

Special Limits Of Liability

The special limit for each category shown below is the total limit for each loss for all property in that category. Additional coverage may apply if purchased and provided elsewhere in this policy. These special limits do not increase the Coverage C limit of liability.

3. We will pay no more than $1,500 for each of the following categories of property:
a. Bicycles and related equipment."

If your loss includes dwelling damage, your policy provides for the actual cost of the repairs less your deductible and less any non-recoverable depreciation up to the amount of coverage. Should the actual repairs be less than our estimated costs the final payment due, if any, will be based on the actual cost incurred to repair or replace your property.

Our position set out above is based upon the information we have to date. Should you have any other information that you would like for us to consider or that you feel would affect our coverage investigation and subsequent coverage decision in this matter, please do not hesitate to send that information directly to me as soon as possible.

Furthermore, for those portion(s) of your loss that are covered by your policy, if there are any new or unknown damages discovered during the covered reconstruction and repair of the above-mentioned property, you or your representative are requested to contact us or contact your adjuster directly prior to the commencement of repairs of those damages. Pursuant to your duties after loss and to prevent prejudice to us, you must show us the damaged property.

Please do not construe this letter or any act or failure to act on our part, or any agent or representative of ours, as a waiver of any rights or defenses available to us by contract or at law as all such rights and defenses are hereby specifically reserved.

Should you have any questions or additional information regarding this claim, please contact me at the information below.

Thank you for being our customer. We appreciate your business.

Sincerely,

Amanda Leppert
