Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

On May 17, 2022, in Bloomington, in Hennepin County, Minnesota, police responded to a report of shoplifting from Goodwill. Staff at Goodwill reported that numerous customers saw the female suspect concealing items in her purse and that she was causing a disturbance in the store. The shoplifter was described as a white female with pink hair wearing knee high socks and a white dress. Officers arrived and made contact with the female suspect, later identified as Amy Louise Lillievold (DOB: 9/29/1974), Defendant herein. Defendant was wearing shoes from the store. Defendant initially refused to provide police with her name. She later verbally identified herself and she had warrants in Scott County and Rice County. Defendant's property was searched and an aspirin bottle was located in her purse. A bag which field tested positive for methamphetamine in 2.86 grams was found inside the aspirin bottle.
